

Dear CFL Members, Friends and Supporters,

I'm inviting you to spend Thanksgiving 2006 at the Christian Family Living Center (CFL) as we host a special Thanksgiving Work Weekend.

Together we'll celebrate our blessings as well as the richness of Marianist Family Ministry retreats and programs of affirmation, forgiveness, and commitment. As a community we'll rejoice with a traditional Thanksgiving feast and donate our time and talent with chores.

When: November 22-26, 2006 (Thanksgiving Dinner will be served Thursday or Friday depending on arrival schedules)

Cost: Free of charge for this work weekend (donations are always appreciated)

Who: Come alone or bring family and friends – everyone will be warmly embraced

How: Fill out the enclosed Reservation Form and email it back to me. Space is limited so please register early.

What: There are chores for all ages and skill levels, here is a sampling:

- Pressure wash & stain our decks (bring a pressure washer if you have one)
- Paint “free-throw” lines for basketball court (we have the orange paint)
- Swap out mattresses (we have the mattresses)
- Launder bedspreads (using our machines)
- Reinforce the dumpster fence (we have the lumber)
- Beautify the grounds with raking, weeding, sweeping, etc

Blessings to you and your families during this season of gratitude,
Marilynn Shackelford

Communion:

As a Catholic institution, the CFL Center follows the "Guidelines for the Reception of Communion" issued by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Guidelines say that we welcome our fellow Christians to the celebration of the Eucharist as brothers and sisters in Christ. However, because Catholics believe the complete celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of a complete oneness in faith, life and worship, we are not able to invite those who are not Catholic to reception of Holy Communion. We sincerely pray for that day when there will be complete union among Christians.

Please copy this brochure and invite your friends and relatives to CFL!
